It is with much excitement and pleasure that we send the WAV Wine Club the first offering of the new Wofford Acres Vineyards wines – 2003 “LaMancha”. Many of you have had the opportunity to taste this wine in your visits to the winery and now have the chance to see the final results.

A 50% Petite Sirah and 50% Nebbiolo blend, I tried to capture the bright aromatic properties of the varieties and avoid the harsh tannins that both of the varieties can exhibit. We are rewarded with an intense magenta color leading to fragrant raspberry and cherry aromas. Youthful yet complex, the structure of the wine is surprising silky and leaves a lingering violet and raspberry finish.

This wine longs for summer evenings and barbecues. A perfect match to ribs or steaks the wine is soft enough to be enjoyed with salmon and other rich fish.
