With the popularity of the 2004 and 2005 Molino de Viento, the release of the 2006 vintage has been long anticipated. The 2006 was barrel fermented and aged 6 months in 66% new Allier French oak barrels and 34% stainless steel.

The wine explodes with bright strawberry, plum and grapefruit aromas. Flavors follow to a clean lingering strawberry finish.

Perfect for summer enjoyment this wine will bring cheer to any event. A great quaffer to enjoy with a friend.
